By submitting this form, you understand and agree to the following: The mailing list used by SEMINAR DIRECT will be created using the criteria listed in Sections 1A-1C and that this mailing list CANNOT be 100% accurate and deliverable due to many uncontrollable variables including the US Postal Service. Furthermore, mailings may not reach 100% of the targeted population in any area and delivery dates are projected based upon past experience, but cannot be guaranteed. Delivery via First-Class mail is much more predictable than Standard Mail and we recommend this upgrade when time frames are short or critical. All age and income information used to process this mailing list may be delivered by utilizing self reported information, census data, as well as projected data based upon formulas and other unique sources. SEMINAR DIRECT is not responsible for checking other zip codes or counties or duplicate mailings by other individuals or organizations. No exclusive zip code or county reservations are offered at any time.
